DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment filed on October 17, 2005 has been entered. No claims have been amended. Claims 9-16 have been canceled. Claims 17-18 have been added. Claims 17-18 are pending in this application, with claims 17 and 18 being independent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. Claims 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Galloway et al (US PAT # 5,940,492).

Regarding claim 17, Galloway teaches a method for call control in an exchange of a communication network, the method comprising the steps of: using an information element of a signaling message (see col. 2, lines 6-10 and col. 4, lines 1-19) for signaling between exchanges in the communication network (see col. 4, lines 4-11); embedding at least one administrative function (the claimed "administrative function" reads on certain requests and services, see col. 1, lines 44-57 and col. 2, lines 16-30) to the call control of the exchange at predetermined locations (this basically reads on having some mandatory information contained in the message as shown in Figs. 2, 3, and 4 and this information will control the routing of the signaling message, see also, col. 4, lines 22-53); evaluating and alerting (these limitations are inherent), based on said at least one administrative function, at least one content value of the informational element contained in the signaling message (this reads on the variable part 47, see for example, Fig. 3 and Fig. 4, see also, col. 3, lines 60-67) wherein the content value defines an operational characteristic of the informational element.

Claim 18 is rejected for the same reasons as discussed above with respect to claim 17.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 10/17/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

On page 3 of the remarks, applicant states "Claim 8 was rejection under 35 U.S.C 112, second paragraph as being indefinite..." Note that claim 8 was not examined in the previous office action because the applicant already canceled claims 1-8 in a preliminary amendment filed on 10/22/2001.

Applicant argues that Galloway does not teach or disclose the feature "evaluating and alerting, based on said at least one administrative function...". Examiner respectfully disagrees with applicant argument since the examiner believes that the claimed limitations of "evaluating and alerting" are inherent features in Galloway.

Also, applicant argues "the present claims recite a dynamic expandability of the connection control". Note, that this limitation is not recited anywhere in the claim language. Thus, it appears that applicant is reading into the claim's language.

Examiner believes that all other arguments are already addressed in the above rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
